

ICF on Tour:

Coaching Beyond Boundaries

Le forum d'automne s'inscrit cette année dans la célébration des 20 ans d'ICF Global : ICF on Tour, en visite sur 30 pays de la zone Europe, Middle-East & Africa

17 novembre 2015

Forum de Grenelle
5 rue de la Croix-Nivert – 75015 Paris

Leda, Turai Petrauskiene -Lithuania

Leda, is a leadership and executive MCC coach, trainer and coach supervisor and also an active contributor to the coaching profession in various roles within the International Coach Federation. She has over 15 years of international work experience in profit and non-profit organizations. She has an interest also in the science of organizational coaching and she carried out a research in applying coaching in Human Resource Management. She got the Knight's Cross of the Order of Merit of the Republic of Hungary (2006). As a chapter president of ICF Lithuania she contributed to the professional qualification of many coaches and to the improvement of the coaching brand on the market. Having represented the EMEA Region organizing leaders' meetings and supporting the work of the regional project groups, Leda is ICF assessor in 5 languages, and currently the vice-chair of the Global Board of the ICF Global. Leda will deliver a speech based on the trends and her vision about the future of professional coaching, and ICF priorities.

Oslem Sarioglu -Turkey

Oslem, PCC coach, has a BA degree on International Relations She worked on a wide range of topics from international tax structuring to mergers and acquisitions with more than 35 countries for a big four. She coaches professionals to advance their careers towards their personal ideals and to tap into their individual potentials. Oslem also serves on the international faculty of « Institute of the Transformational Psychology » of Netherlands, working on Voice Dialogue she is passionate about. Oslem will bring a first-hand experience of expanding the "coach identity" and "coaching presence" of the participants through Voice Dialogue technique, while activating a personal transformation.

Christian Worth – France

Christian works as a PCC coach, mentor coach and trainer. He also serves as an assessor for the credentialing program of International Coach Federation. While in Japan, he was vice-President of the French Chamber of Commerce and Industry, in charge of PR and communications. Christian worked for 32 years in Advertising in France, Mexico, Italy, Québec, Japan, Germany and Hong Kong. He was Asia-Pacific Regional Account MD when he turned to Coaching. Speaker and author of "Less stress, More success" and three more books, he is passionate about Hara, a Japanese name for the energy center. The Hara Connection he will share interactively is a super powerful tool to relate to another individual. Coaches listen better and feed their intuition with it. Executives develop a better, deeper connection with their teams and live a more interesting life and richer relationships. Anybody who went through this concept, important in martial arts and self-control, is equipped for superior relationships to humans and nature.

Sue Coyne - United Kingdom

Sue, Coach PCC, brings together 20 years of business leadership experience, the latest thinking on leadership and neuroscience and advanced coaching skills with her 12 years of walking alongside Executives and Board Directors to enable sustainable high performance and maximise impact. Her aim is to support leaders in creating environments in which they and their people can thrive. She believes that one key aspect of this is enabling leaders to access genius in themselves and then they in turn can enable their people to do the same. She is currently part of an international group of coaches researching Enabling Genius and supporting Myles Downey in writing a book on this topic that will be published in Autumn 2015. What if genius were available to us all? What if genius is beyond boundaries? In Sue's session participants will challenge the conventional notion of genius and explore the implications of it being available to us all, sharing latest thinking from neuroscience, exploring new approaches and new ways of thinking, catalysing change.

Jean-Luc Pening – Belgium

Jean-Luc, started his career as agricultural engineering working for the FAO and different consultancy offices in several countries in Africa. Then he moved with his family in Burundi, where he launched a production and export company of ornamental plants. But paradise turns into hell when in civil war a bullet is fired in a close range, and spring miraculously alive, but blind, disabled for life. Jean-Luc became then certified coach PCC, mentor coach and network partner Morena Coaching International, founder of a Burundian NGO program, musician, writer, author of the film Nawewe, Oscar nominated in 2011 and winning 28 times. Its niche? Turn problems into stepping stones, handicaps into assets, means to achieve serenity. He shares his experience of life and the impact it has had with another coach « view ». How to live the change of direction at 90, 180, 360, 3600 degrees or more? How to move forward without knowing where we are going, facing the unexpected and uncertain changes beyond boundaries? As the roots of a tree...

Elio Mauro – Argentina

Elio, leader and expert in the water field started his career as a hydrogeologist with the Suez group. In the 90s he led a team responsible for the quality and supply of drinking water from the underground part of Greater Buenos Aires (13 million inhabitants). He was then responsible for the drinking water production plant of the second Argentine city Rosario, 1.2 million inhabitants. Expat in Jakarta and its suburbs (30 million), Elio has implemented with his Indonesian team (200 people) innovative solutions in sourcing water of the city, including many low-income neighborhoods. He also managed water successfully in Algiers. Elio is currently responsible for monitoring the maturity, efficiency, and the knowledge transfer among water facilities where Suez operates. He witnessed migrations from rural to urban areas, carrying surprising anecdotes, connoisseur and passionate about people, cultures, and creativity (the "resourceful") the most diverse. His vision of a world without boundaries is realistic, and probably optimistic.

Eugénie Bousquet – France

Eugénie is a member of the Board of the Association Resonances Humanitaires whose mandate is to help the "humanitarians" to their mission back but also their professional reconversion. After Sciences Po Grenoble, she emigrates in Colombia, confirms its professional project in international solidarity, and completes her studies with a postgraduate degree in social practices of development and integrates Action Contre la Faim operations before joining East Timor and Kenya. Back in France, she continues her career within ACF and will move towards human resources. 9 years later, she took HR responsibility of the NGO Première Urgence and accompanies the merger with Aide Médicale who becomes the NGO Première Urgence International (PUI), and then became head of the PUI HR Department. A rich career within international NGOs.

Christopher Peterson – USA

Christopher facilitates individual and organizational transformations through coaching, mediation, facilitation of large groups and training in relational intelligence. American in France for 45 years, he either works in French and English at ease in cross-cultural issues. Christopher has a great pleasure to practice active learning and helps above all its participants to discover their own answers to questions of relational order. He likes to combine a wide range of approaches to stimulate all minds - emotional, bodily, mental, "spiritual", intuition, story... To bring these approaches in practice, he relies on therapy, supervision, work constellation, work on voice, martial arts, yoga and meditation.